

DECK THE Halls

—BY JON GEORGE—

FOUNTAINS & FOLIAGE

Placed right into view from the sun room (top, left) this fountain adds sound and motion to the back garden. A stone birdbath (above, right) is surrounded by the shiny evergreen foliage of the leopard lily, also known as farfugium.

DECK THE WALLS

The focus of the backyard, creeping fig (below) hides a wooden fence and provides a soothing green backdrop for the back patio. An occasional trimming gives this creeping vine a manicured look.

*'T*is the season to spruce up the landscape. Hollies & evergreens give this Northwest Gainesville home an elegant makeover. Christmas lights wreath the pyramidal evergreens for the holidays. Add a few extra decorations, and you have the perfect setting for your holiday celebrations.
